

Don Mills Centre: Letter to the Editor in today's Toronto Star:
(The title of the referenced article, "No more rooms at this inn" refers to the recently demolished Inn on the Park building.)

Don Mills losing to wrecker's ball

May 13, 2006. 01:00 AM

---

No more rooms at this inn

---

May 9.

This article mentions that the old Bata headquarters on Wynford Drive is the next item on the demolition list in Don Mills.

But there is a third item in close proximity: the Don Mills Centre is slated for demolition on May 31.

Why is it that one building after another is being demolished in Don Mills this summer?

The social, environmental and health ramifications for the community are enormous.

Perhaps it is time for the city to ask some deep questions before demolishing these significant buildings.

---

Simone Gabbay, Toronto